

Call for Entries VI

It's time again for our quarterly award's show for the best student work in Graphic Design, Photography, Illustration and Fine Arts.

If you've entered before you'll notice some changes in entry fees--they're still low--and we're introducing new awards for best of category in each of our four categories.

Each category is judged by a leading practitioner in each field; for full details, click here. So send us your best work before October 13, 2006.

If you're an instructor, encourage your students to enter; if you're a student you'll receive valuable exposure in one of the few magazines devoted to promoting new talent.

Deadline: Postmarked by October 13, 2006
