

September 26, 2008

Arts and Humanities Fair partners with Admissions Visitation Day

Schedule

8:00 – 8:45 a.m. Arrival & Registration—DeWitt Theatre Lobby (141 E. 12th St. off Columbia Ave.)

- Small complimentary breakfast available in the DeWitt Theatre lobby.

-You are welcome to stroll the campus to acquaint yourselves with our registration map.

8:45 a.m. Welcome from the Dean—DeWitt Theatre

9:00 – 9:50 a.m. Session 1—See campus map—Hope Student Tour Guides Available

10:00 – 10:50 a.m. Session 2—See campus map—Hope Student Tour Guides Available

11:00 – 11:50 a.m. Lunch –Phelps Dining Hall  --150 E. 10th Street & Columbia Ave.

12:00 – 12:50 p.m. Session 3—See campus map—Hope Student Tour Guides Available

1:15 or 2:00 p.m.* Student Panel Discussion—Martha Miller Center, Auditorium #135
-Your opportunity to get answers from Hope students. Will I be challenged academically? Etc.

OR

1:15 or 2:00 p.m.* Meet the Faculty— See insert for dept. availability and location map
-Learn about specific academic department(s) of your choice

2:00- 2:30p.m.* Meet the Faculty—See insert for dept. availability and location map
-Learn about specific academic department(s) of your choice

2:40 p.m.* Residential Life, Student Activities, Residence Hall Tours
Cook Hall—Lounge Area --115 E. 10th Street

John Jobson, Dir. of Res. Life, and Ellen Awad, Dir.of Student Activities, will share campus opportunities/campus details and then a tour of (co-ed) Cook Hall, Dykstra (all female), and Durfee (all male) will be given.

Please note that all afternoon activities are optional. We understand Friday night sports/activities will require return to your high school campus earlier. Feel free to work with the departure that fits your schedule.

*Students will eat in Phelps Dining Hall. They are welcome to mix in with the college students or sit in an area that will be designated for Arts and Humanities Fair participants. Complimentary luncheon provided for high school educators and participating Hope faculty/staff in small banquet room (Barber Room) that adjoins the south end of Phelps Dining Hall near the Maas Center.

