

Michael J. Brusko

54 E. 13th St. ♦ Holland, MI ♦ 49423

(262) 989-8551

michael.brusko@hope.edu

INTERNSHIP OBJECTIVE

To obtain an internship at Morgan Stanley as a Financial Advisor Assistant

EDUCATION

Hope College, Holland, MI

Graduation: May 2009

Bachelor of Arts: Management

Minor: Communication

GPA 3.82/4.0

HONORS AND AWARDS

Vice President of the Baker Scholars (business leadership honor society)

Member of the 2005 MIAA All-Academic Football Team

Dean's List

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Compliance/Investments Intern, Heartland Advisors, Milwaukee, WI Summer 2008

- Presented investment ideas to the portfolio managers of Heartland's highly ranked four and five star mutual funds
- Learned how to analyze securities using Heartland's 10 Point Grid
- Participated in research meetings with portfolio managers, research analysts, and traders
- Examined clients' portfolios to ensure proper allocation of assets in equity, fixed income, and cash based on their investment policy statements

Portfolio Management

Spring 2008

- Currently utilizing both analytical skills and knowledge of financial markets to manage a $10,000 portfolio to a YTD return of 16.2%
- In the same period the Dow is down 13.46% and the S&P is down 12.6%

Financial Analyst Intern/Runner, MF Global, Chicago, IL

Fall 2007

- Assisted the company's Vice President of Agricultural Sales as a runner at the Chicago Board of Trade
- Provided analysis of the financial markets in the form of spreadsheets, graphs, and write ups for the financial research department
- Interacted closely with many traders, brokers, and company executives
- Developed ability to analyze markets and make innovative investment decisions

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Youth Group Leader

Fall 2006-Spring 2007

- Served as a teacher, leader, and role-model for 6th grade boys at Ridge Point Community Church in Holland, MI

Hope College Mission Trip

Spring 2006

- Assisted the Pompano Beach, FL, community in the clean up following Hurricane Katrina

