

Participation Paper -- (“doing it”)

Participation is worth 50 points.

Involves a 5-page typed participation analysis paper, submitted in three parts.

Step One: Class creates a participation rubric.

Step Two: Individual creates a set of individually generated goals.

Step Three: Part I of paper: One page, reacting to and assessing the class-generated rubric AND in which you generate your own participation goals for the semester.
Due Friday, February 6.

Step Four: Part II of paper: Three pages, two pages consisting of a midcourse progress report of your own efforts and one page which is a letter to your Participation partner, providing specific feedback on his or her participation as you have observed it to date. Monday, February 23.

Step Five: Part III of paper: One page, which contains a final, realistic assessment of your participation in the course. Monday, April 19

The 5-page paper must be completed if any points for participation are to be earned.
