

Mission Statement

The American String Teachers Association is a professional organization serving string teachers, orchestra directors, professional players-and through them-the general public. The association promotes excellence, communication, professionalism, and leadership potential among its members and throughout the music community. Its ultimate goals are maintaining standards of musical excellence, professional communication, member inspiration, and increased visibility of its position, activities, and the art it serves.

Student Officers for 2007-08

President: Tori Baar

Faculty Advisor

Mihai Craioveanu craioveanu@hope.edu