

Spirituality and Spiritual Care Nursing Interventions and the Relationship to Health & Healing

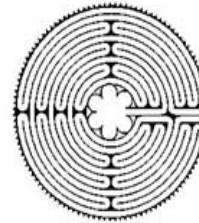

Barbara Baele Vincensi MSN FNP
Nursing Department
(616)- 395-7536
vincensi@hope.edu

Education: PhD (in progress), Loyola University Chicago. Post Master's Certificate Family Nurse Practitioner, Grand Valley State University. MSN, Indiana University, Indianapolis. BSN, Purdue University.

Expertise: Spirituality/spiritual care in nursing; adult/gerontological nursing; advanced practice nursing; trauma/intensive care nursing; culture & health; holistic care & integrative medicine; nursing theory development; Parish/Faith Community nursing.

Grants: 2002, collaborative work with the Health Promotion Department of the Ottawa County Health Department: 10,000 STEPS for Health, targeting women, especially those of color; 2001-2004, American Heart Association, Free cholesterol screening, targeting uninsured, within a faith community.

Key publications: 1991-1993 Peer reviewer, Orthopedic Nursing Journal. 1993-1995 Book reviewer, Journal of Continuing Education in Nursing. 1995 Bakker, D. & Vincensi B. Economic impact of the CNS: Practitioner role. Clinical Nurse Specialist Journal, 36(5), 50-53. 2007 (in review process) Reliability and validity of tools to describe nursing spiritual care using standardized language. Journal of Nursing Scholarship.

Spirituality & Spiritual Nursing Interventions Impact Health & Healing

