

DR. ROGER J. NEMETH
Department of Sociology and Social Work

EDUCATION

- BA, summa cum laude, Western Michigan University, Sociology Major (Highest Honors); History Major (Highest Honors)
- MA, (Sociology & Demography) University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
- NIHCD Pre-Doctoral Population Fellowship, Carolina Population Center
- Population Institute Fellow, East-West Center Honolulu, Hawaii and Manila, Philippines.
- Ph.D. (Sociology & Demography) University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Fulbright Study Award in Korea, U.S. Department of Education
- Joseph Malone Faculty Fellow, National Council on U.S. and Arab Relations, American University, Cairo, Egypt
- Outstanding Teacher Award, given by the Michigan Sociological Association
- Long-Term Faculty Research Award, Program for Inter-Institutional Collaboration in Area Studies, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor
- Knight Foundation Fellowship, summer research at the Free University, Amsterdam, The Netherlands
- Founding Member & Organizer of the International Society for the Study of Reformed Communities
- Marvin Olsen Memorial Award, Michigan Sociological Association for distinguished service to sociology in Michigan
- Meiji Gakuin University - Hope College Exchange Professor
- National Councilor in Social Science Division, Council for Undergraduate Research (CUR), and Divisional Editor, CUR Quarterly
- Freeman Foundation Student/Faculty Research Fellow

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- 1979-1983 Research Assistant, Professor Ronald R. Rindfuss, Carolina Population Center, University of North Carolina
- 1983-present Professor of Sociology and Social Work, Hope College
- 1990-1991 Director, Frost Research Center, Hope College