

Work Outside the College

Work outside Hope College while employed as a regular full-time employee is discouraged but not prohibited. If additional work is performed, it must not detract from the performance of your regular duties at the College nor may it create a conflict of interest.