

College Shut-Down

The College closes the facilities from Christmas Eve through New Years Day. Salaried individuals who would have normally received pay during this time will continue to do so. For those individuals who must work during one of the shut down days, additional time equivalent to not more than 8 hours per day worked can be taken later.