**The language exams have one exam for the first AND second year. Credit-by-exam is granted based on score and courses completed. For example, a score of 50 in French gives the possibility of earning 8 credits (101 & 102). However, if credit has already been earned for 102, only 4 hours will be granted (101). Likewise, a score of 62 on the same exam will give the potential for 16 hours of credit, less credit already earned for any of the courses.*

Students are reminded that the maximum amount of credit by examination which can be applied toward the 126 hours for graduation is 32 hours, 8 of which can be in the major area of concentration. Please read carefully the sections under "Credit By Examination" in the current college catalog when considering credit by examination.
