

Hope's Department of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, and is rated in The College Finder as one of the forty best music departments in the country.

The Music Department offers numerous student centered degree programs (B.M. in Performance, B.M. in Jazz Performance, B.M. in Music Education, B.A. in Music, Music Composites, Minor in Music and a Minor in Jazz Studies).

Every course in the Music Department is taught by one of Hope's exceptional forty-member faculty.

The Music Department offers a multitude of ways to experience music – twenty performing ensembles, digital recording studios, world music exploration, internationally renowned guest artist residencies, and much, much, more.

All Hope Music students have the opportunity to explore international and domestic exchanges, courses, internships and tours.

Whether you wish to pursue a degree in music or simply wish to continue playing or learning about music; The Hope College Music Department has a place for you.

PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Hope's performing ensembles include the Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, Anchor Band, Orchestra/Symphonette, College Chorus, Collegium Musicum, Chapel Choir, Opera Workshop and numerous chamber ensembles. Ensembles regularly tour both domestically and internationally.

Regularly scheduled studio classes, performance classes, and student recitals are open to majors and non-majors alike.

I – ENSEMBLES

Most ensembles require some sort of audition. These auditions provide an opportunity for the ensemble conductors to meet new performers. Auditions are held at the beginning of the semester and take place in the Nykerk Hall of Music. Audition appointments will be made during the first week of classes. Information about auditions is posted on bulletin boards outside Wichers and Snow Auditoriums, in the Nykerk Building.
