

If you are considering a management (business) major, you should plan to attend this group meeting.

Tuesday, October 27 11 am Science Center 1116

Management faculty will talk about the major, discuss registration issues, and respond to questions.

Attendance at one of these group meetings is a required first-step for declaring a management major.