Music & Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim
Book By James Lapine

At long last the genius of Stephen Sondheim comes to our stage, in his most beloved work. Drawing from the classic tales of Cinderella, Jack and the Beanstalk, Little Red Ridinghood, and Rapunzel, Sondheim's great music weaves their stories together in this intricate grown-up version. While charming and funny, these familiar characters may answer your own questions about why your life doesn't seem to be as easy as a fairy tale. Not recommended for children under 13.

Knickerbocker Theatre - 8:00 PM
June 25, 26, 30
July 2, 6, 8, 28 August 4, 7, 10
Book and lyrics by Tom Jones,
Music by Harvey Schmidt

20 years ago David Colacci and Susan Ericksen followed their spring wedding with a summer performing this beloved musical, which follows a young couple from the bliss and uncertainty of the wedding night, through parenthood, mid-life crisis and growing old together in the early 20th Century. Now we join them in celebrating their anniversary with a second honeymoon, as they revisit this jaunt through a married life from a new perspective.

Theatre 2010 Season

DeWitt Theatre - 8:00 PM

July 9, 10, 15, 17, 21, 30

August 5, 12, 14

By

Eugène Labiche & Marc-Michel

Translation by Kenneth McLeish

A bridegroom anticipating his wedding day, a future father-in-law looking for a way to stop the progress of that day, a wandering horse that takes a big bite out of a lady's tempting straw hat, the frantic quest to replace that rare hat, the growing crowd that joins in the search: it's classic and hilarious French farce! As the quest for the hat and the hour of the wedding become inexorably intertwined, the laughs embrace the whole city of Paris as well as the audience.

DeWitt Theatre - 8:00 PM

August 3, 6, 9, 11, 13

by Alfred Uhry

Winner of the 1997 Tony Award for Best Play, and written by the Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Driving Miss Daisy, The Last Night of Ballyhoo is a charming and bittersweet comedy set in Atlanta on the day of the Gone with the Wind premiere in the pre-WWII era. Meanwhile, a segment of Atlanta's elite is more concerned with who will be attending Ballyhoo, the social event of the season. The arrival of a handsome stranger from New York forces the Freitag family to deal with who they really are as they are pulled apart and mended again with plenty of gentle comedy, sweet romance, and unexpected turns.

based on the book by Katie Couric
Music and lyrics by Michael Friedman

Lazlo S. Gasky starts second grade in a new city in a new country and feels awfully lonely until popular Ellie McNelly decides to look beyond his accent and give him a chance. This fresh new musical, adapted from the acclaimed book by Katie Couric, addresses a common problem that school children everywhere can relate to—teasing.
