Camp is geared toward advanced players who want to refine their individual skills and master team concepts in a fast-paced and demanding atmosphere. Players will be instructed in the fundamentals that make top players, and they will learn the importance of leadership and sportsmanship. Camp will enhance each player's knowledge of reading defensive sets, playing a zone defense, reading offensive keys, and team passing concepts. All players receive individual attention and instruction on offensive and defensive skills. Camp will feature several games, daily passing leagues, one-on-one exercises, and access to top flight weight training facilities.
