

maxine d e b r u y n

Maxine deBruyn is the founder of the Dance Department at Hope College. Maxine holds several positions in dance education associations, most notably as President elect of the National Dance Education Organization, and board member at large and member of the executive committee of Dance and the Child International (daCi). Also, she has served as director of the National Association of Schools of Dance. She is the director of the Sacred Dance Company.