

Amnesty International Presents

Michigan Peace Team: The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict

- Why is there conflict between Israel and Palestine?
- Isn't Palestine just a part of Israel?
- Has there not been conflict between Jews and Arabs for centuries?
- What causes the conflict to continue?
- Can a peaceful solution be found and when?
- What can each of us do?

Where: Phelps Otte Room

(come in 10th St. entrance, and turn left)

When: 4pm, Thursday, January 22nd, 2009

Questions? Email Amnesty@hope.edu

The Michigan Peace Team (MPT) has placed teams within Israel and Palestine since 1993. Their objective has been to observe the conflict and attempt to influence change through the application of peace and justice principles. Interaction has been with Israeli individuals, Palestinian individuals, Israeli military and police and many peace and justice organizations.