

Summer Resident Assistant Application 2012

Summer Resident Assistant (RA) positions are available on campus to serve Hope students and community members who are participating in a variety of Hope summer programs, research and coursework. This part-time position requires students to serve as advisors, counselors, mediators, and resources to their peers.

1. Position Flexibility: The RA position is flexible in time requirements allowing students to work another summer job while working in housing.
2. Job Description: Please refer to the posted description online:
<http://www.hope.edu/student/residential/ra/positionoverview.htm>
3. Compensation: Summer RAs receive compensation in the form of housing for the duration of their position.
4. Housing Assignment: Your housing assignment is dependent on department need as well as your own qualifications.
5. Academics and Behavioral Good Standing: Hope College is committed to seeking applicants with strong academics.
Candidates must have a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade point average to be considered for an RA position.
Additionally, students who are on behavioral probation will be considered only after a discussion about the nature of the judicial violation. In some types of cases students with certain judicial violations will not be considered for an RA position.
6. RA Experience Preferred: Given the short-term needs of the summer terms, preference will be given to applicants who have served as an RA previously or will be serving as an RA in the upcoming academic year. Additionally, qualified candidates who are available for all summer terms will be given priority consideration.
7. Questions: If you have any questions, concerns or needs please contact HerBrina Shepherd at shepherd@hope.edu.
8. Due Date: Applications are due by 5pm on March 15, 2012 to Student Development.

To apply for this position you are required to submit a resume. Here are suggestions for your resume:
